OUR STORY

One Stone is a tribute to the women who move mountains, one stone at a time. In that spirit, we create wines that shine at every occasion.

Our grapes come from select sites that exemplify Paso Robles as a world-class region for Cabernet Sauvignon. The resulting wine is sophisticated, elegant and powerful—much like the land and the women from which they come.

THE ARTIST

The striking label showcases an original painting by Paso Robles area artist, Audrey Jackson.

“This project was a dream to work on. It is a beautiful story for such a needed cause. I had the privilege to see my artwork come to life. Like the women they aim to inspire, I also feel grateful to have this opportunity to have my artwork stand for something bigger than myself.”

-Audrey Jackson

GIVING BACK

A portion from every bottle sold is donated to Dream Big Darling, which provides educational opportunities and mentorship programs for the next generation of female leaders in the wine and spirits industry. Dream Big Darling was founded by Amanda Wittstrom-Higgins.
